

the vision of your marriage

WORKSHOP 1

At its best, marriage isn't about completing each other; it's about walking side by side on the journey to become independently joyful, together.

This workshop invites you to see the bigger picture – that your life's purpose isn't just survival or even worldly success, but evolution. In this light, marriage becomes one of the most powerful ways to grow, offering daily chances for both partners to support, challenge, and uplift each other. By the end, you'll start crafting a vision and mission for your marriage, both rooted in meaning rather than routine.
